Dear ,

Welcome to our e-newsletter, "On Ruby Street." I'm excited about our new format because, now, I can send photos with the news! Now you can SEE how beautiful a new collection is or SEE a class sample or SEE how much fun we had at the Demo Derby. Of course we can't put pictures of all our gorgeous fabric in a newsletter, so you will still find links to our website where you can see images of entire collections, learn the details of an upcoming class or collect project ideas. You can visit the website any time by clicking on our Magpie in the newsletter heading.

April 22 is Earth Day.

In celebration we are offering the entire Earth Angel and Circle of Life collections at 50% off their regular price. The sale starts on Earth Day, Thursday, April 22 and runs through Sunday, April 25th. See both collections in their entirety on our website by clicking on the photo of our magnificent Earth.

Washington Stars Quilt Guild Challenge

You must stop by the shop and see these quilts! The Washington Stars Quilt Guild members are still challenging themselves. The theme for their Spring Challenge was "Unity Through Repetition." Eight creative guild members interpreted the theme in surprising and delightful ways. I encourage you to visit the quilts in person on Ruby Street, but if you can't, click on the fries to see them on the website. The quilt shown is "Fries, Fries and Bigger Fries."

Washington Stars Quilt Guild Auction

Well, the busy ladies at the Washington Stars Guild are not content to just sit about making fantastic quilts. Plan to attend their fabulous "Birds of a Feather Quilter's Auction." You will find treasures for quilters and non-quilters alike: lovely gift baskets, machine quilting services, books, fabric, quilts, quilting frames, patterns, trips, decorations, tools, gardening items, food and wine, special trips and vacations and more! The Auction will be held on Saturday, April 24, from 12 - 4 at the Thurston County Fairgrounds. Click here to visit the guild's website and learn more about the auction. You can see photos of some of the auction items.

Mark Lipinski is the guild's special guest and will serve as auctioneer. The "bad boy of quilting" is known for his no holds barred, brutally honest, riotous PG-13 presentations which are half quilting lecture and half stand-up comedy. He is sure to bring lots of fun and some consternation to the proceedings. To learn more about Mark, check out his website by clicking here.

We have Mark's recent collection "Oakland" in the shop now and we're expecting his gorgeous new holiday collection, "Winter's Grace" any time. Click on the swatch to see the entire collection.

While you're at the auction, say "Hi" to David. Ruby Street Quiltworks is helping out at the auction by processing credit cards. David will be helping at the check-out table. Just hand over your credit card (or smile) and receive a coupon for 40% off a single item or cut of fabric on your next visit to Ruby Street Quiltworks.

Don't forget, Mother's Day is May 9th.

All our florals are on sale for 25% off the regular price through the end of April.

To honor Mother, we are also offering a free Fat Quarter for every $25 worth of Ruby Street Quiltworks Gift Cards purchased between now and Mother's Day. For the best surprise of all, bring Mom in with her gift card on Mother's Day and she can use her gift card to purchase her own flowers at 50% off! Our florals will be marked down just for Mom, just on Mother's Day.

Thank you for reading "On Ruby Street." I hope you enjoyed our new format. You can let us know what you think by clicking on our e-mail address below.
